Mary:

I write in your ~~annual~~ with a heavy and lonely heart, because this will be the last book with both mine & your picture in it. I can't stand the thought of never coaching you again. The next paragraph will be in coded letter or number.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; and a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and time to lose; a time to keep silence, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; and a time to speak;

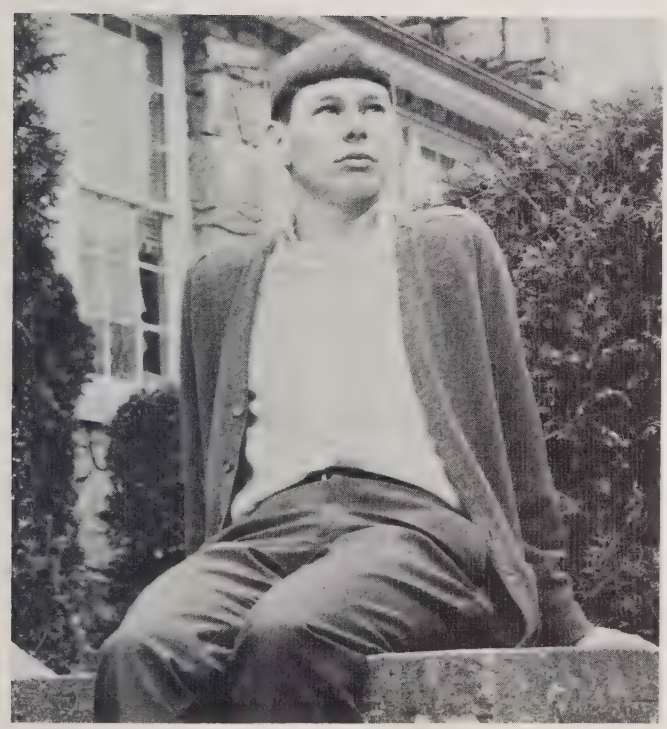
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

A time to be happy – the essence of youth brimming over – to love – endless joy – to swell with pride in accomplishing.

A time to be sad – to admit folly – melancholy – remember the struggles the inner conflict – to want the inaccessible – to wonder.

A time to speak – to have the courage to try – to communicate – to exchange knowledge – to attempt to gain understanding – to know.

A time of school spirit – to participate – to yell for a winning team – to know the happiness of victory – to suffer defeat – to support the Alma Mater.



A time to think – to struggle with loneliness – to leave the familiar – to treasure freedom – to be secure – to contemplate the road ahead.

A time to remember – the memories of friends – a common bondage – a little piece of life – images gone so swiftly – the "now" that has become less important than the "then."

. . . Always Cheerful

. . . Always "There"

. . . Always Great!!

To one who has devoted his time, efforts, and abilities toward making our high school years rewarding, challenging, and memorable. His encouragement and interest have helped us to reach our goals. We, the Senior Class, sincerely dedicate the 1969 WILDCAT to Mr. Dennis McCurry.

We, the Senior Class of Mars Hill High, know the time has come to say "farewell". We leave the familiar halls of our school with heavy hearts, wonderful memories, enriched minds and a promising future. The knowledge obtained within the rooms of our school will prove its priceless value as we confront a challenging world. The joys and sorrows we experienced will never be forgotten as the moments of our lives creep on: We leave proudly and with hardly a tear.

We the class of 1969 know the time has come: We leave our school with a feeling of love and admiration. To those who follow us, we wish the best and more, hoping that they, too, will find the right time for love, for learning and for a greater understanding.

Getting ads was an important project.

The editing, compiling, and publishing a record of the year's events in pictures and words is an exciting and interesting task, as well as one requiring much preparation and forethought. We, the 1969 Wildcat staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Eileen Wood, have enjoyed preparing the Wildcat for you, the students of Mars Hill High.

Obtaining money the hard way!

Fresh off the assembly line the school paper contains an article of interest to everyone.

Those who are willing to work hard in school are rewarded by being selected by the faculty as Junior Marshals. Besides having a high scholastic average, these students must show qualities of leadership and have amiable personalities. They must be willing to use their talents to serve others. To be chosen as Junior Marshals entitles these students to take part in Baccalaureate and Graduation Exercises.

Mary,

There are no words to describe what you have meant to me. We have been friends for such a long time, and haven't we been through a lot together? I can still remember the first time you came down to my house. We all loved you so much as everyone who has ever known you does.

OUR SINCERE THANKS

Thinking back through the six years I've really known you I can remember all the joys we shared, the tears we shed, the boys, our talks and the millions of times you've taken me places. You're the only person I've ever met that will tell me something, for my own good, even if you know it will hurt me at the time. I love you for that because that's what I call a "true" friend. If you don't know what I'm talking about, for one time after the Christmas dance when you told me what certain boy I liked? You told me what he said, I cried, and you felt terrible, but I loved you so much for it.

Compliments of
BOB LEDFORD'S USED CARS
Asheville, N.C.

You have given me so much good advice about boys and things — you should be a date counselor. Even if I didn't always take your advice at the time, I saw later you were right and I respected it.

Looking back over this year you were a big part of the thing that meant most to me. I guess you know that's basketball. I was so proud and happy to just set on the bench with you girls. You kept the spirit on the team, and even when the other girls did, I never knew you to make fun of us poor, dumb freshmen. You (and coach) helped me more than anyone else and I'll never forget those four best months of my life. I'll miss it so much and everytime I think of all those good times, I'll think of you. Mary, next year it's your last year here. This year was mine, so I guess that means you have had four times as much fun as me, but please make next year the best ever at MHHS. I've always felt close to you rising "Seniors" and I want you to have only the best. Be No. 1 in basketball and get that trophy. You can do it if you put your head to it. Work hard and if you're lucky enough to get Coach Moss back listen to him 'cause he'll tell you right. "A Friend of the School"

I remember a couple of months ago when you were crazy about a certain boy (D.W.) I tried so hard to help you, but I failed. I hated myself for that, but I guess that it couldn't be helped.

I let you down many times, Mary, and you've always helped me. I want you to know how sorry I am about what happened the night before graduation. I was wrong, but what hurt most was that I thought you were mad at me.

We've had those ~~sessions~~ sessions started by certain "friends" and they're hurt, but you were always so brave and [illegible] you gave me strength to carry on. I'm glad you're happy now with that Cute Yankee Ma[illegible] of yours. Carol I think he's really great. Don't think you hurt me because I would rather have your friendship than anyone's in the world. I [illegible] Well I'm just taking up all your space. I hope you know what you mean to me. I love you as a sister Wyder's and I always will. I think you are beautiful and your personality could charm a snake - even Jerry. (Ha!) I don't know what I'd do without you and your family next year. I love each one of them as my own family. Appreciate them, 'cause you don't know how lucky you are. I'll be leaving but you and all our good times will remain in my mind and heart forever. I've been so lucky to even know you, even if I am leaving. Don't ever forget "Lipton" cause I always be one of your best friends.

Mary
This year has been pretty good but could have been alot better. Sports were pretty good but will be great next year. I promise that basketball will mean everything in our Senior year, and I hope it will mean the same to you. Mary, we have had our ups and downs; I wish that you didn't feel badly toward lower classman, especially Sophomores, and I guess we will have many more because it seems I just don't get along with your bunch anyway. Mary, you have meant alot to me in the past years especially in basketball but I guess we are still the two whose has the hot-tempers. And I promise that I will only take it, my hot-temper, that is, out on Marshall next year during tournament time. I want to wish you the greatest happiness in the world. And we can still have a greater team next year regardless of all that has happened this year like losing our coach, and battling friendships. We will have our great Freshmen and Sophomore again and we'll make it the best ever. One reason we did not make the team go was that the Seniors and Juniors just didn't tick because of unknown reasons, I guess. Well, I have talked enough.

Love you anyway,
Linda

Mary,
I wish you all the happiness
that you can stand. And more too.
With your qualities, you can and will go far. Best Wishes.

Edwin Fisher

Mary,

I really hate to see this year end. We have had a lot of fun and I will never forget it. We will have to make the most of our Senior year.

Basketball was so much fun, and I can't wait until next year. We will do better, if we try harder. You are a good player, and I hope you will play just as well next year. We have had our "ups" and "downs" but things have always worked out. Thank goodness!! You have always had a smile even when we could have killed each other. I don't really think we could have "killed", but you know what I mean. Thanks for being concerned and so helpful when all that "junk" happened. I am sorry I got mad at you over that, it was a misunderstanding, remember that day: I was so mad, but then at the Athletic Banquet, when you said "Your dress is beautiful." I could not have spoken if I had wanted to. After I had said all that "nasty" stuff, I don't see how you ever spoke to me again.

Well, I could write ten pages, but I have messed up enough space.

Love & Best Wishes.

Diane

Mary,

Babe, we've had a truly great year and you've been a big part of mine. Thanks for being so great to me. I'm real lucky to have gone with you + if you like me you've got to be "crazy". But I'm sure glad you do. You've been so great to me I can never express how much I care for you. All that happened was really my fault and I'm sorry for the way I've treated you at times -- like at the first of school when I wouldn't speak to ya. But as you probably know I'm crazy, but happy. I sure wish I could stay around this summer with all my friends. I'll like to thank you for such a great time "Homecoming night" I could never forget it. I thought I'll found my "dream" in you but things just didn't seem to work out for either of us. You're right about me changing since the last time I dated you. I think I grew up a lot -- now maybe I'll know how to handle some situations that will arise. I only hope I've changed for the better because I sure couldn't do much worse. I sure am looking foward to next year cause we're going to be #1 "SENIORS" at this place. I promise you next year will be a great year for MHHS in sports. I may be thinking "big" but I think in football we'll go to state + besides "big" is the only way to think. Mary I don't think you'll ever know how much you mean to me. If you think that I don't act like I care sometimes, it because I'm not ready to get hurt again. If you've ever been hurt I'm sure you know what I mean. One thing I can't understand is why you decided that you really like me now. I didn't do anything -- I was just me + that's not much believe me. I could probably write 2 more pages but I'll stop with two words that mean a lot.

I MEAN 3 WORDS: DEAN MEANS A LOT HA.D HAVE A GREAT SUMMER + WRITE Love Lots, + More Dean
